

Basic Example of a Logic Model –All that kids can be Impact
Area: Support children & youth with the resources and opportunities they need to grow up healthy and achieve well-being – 0 to 24 years of age

Outcome(s)	Inputs	Activities	Outputs	Indicators	Measurement Tools
Children & youth participate in positive relationships and social networking	Community Agency	Sports, social club activities	30 children / youth participate in after school activities	Increased positive peer relationships	Pre-post surveys to Children, youth & parents
	Funders	Parent tour Library and access free, online training program	70 parents read daily with their children and participate in Ready to read program	Increased participation in community activities	Tracking of books and websites
Children and youth experience increased school readiness	Children, parents, teachers	Remedial reading programs for children & youth	15 Community Agencies provided coupons for children / youth to participate in community events	Basic literacy requirements met	Anecdotal observations
	Volunteers	Contact with businesses and community organizations to acquire free passes to community events	30 children /youth access reading programs on the web		Attendance records
	Computers
	Web
	Supplies
	Staff
	Space
	Training

Basic Example of a Logic Model –From Poverty to possibility

Impact Area: Building people’s capacity to move toward self-sufficiency and well-being

Outcome(s)	Inputs	Activities	Outputs	Indicators	Measurement Tools
People have the skills and supports to meet their basic needs	Community Agency	Building community gardens	10 gardens provided fruit and vegetables which were shared with 100 participants and 8 non-profits	Basic nutrition needs being met	Questionnaire with clients and non-profits re impact of community garden
	Funders	Linking with Community Kitchens		Increased adult literacy	Pre / post survey with clients on comfort level re food preparation
People have the resources, capacity and assets to move out of poverty	Community Gardens		50 people took part in Community Kitchen program	Appropriate and sustainable housing	Pre/post survey on reading readiness
	Community Kitchens	Remedial reading sessions, library access, and computer skills training	25 people accessed libraries and navigated email and the web	Increased employment training	Tracking of books and websites
	Library				Anecdotal observations
	Volunteers	Working with landlords and support services re client housing	15 landlords made suites available for supportive housing		Attendance records
	Computers
	Supplies
	Staff	Providing program for employment training	10 participants ready for job interviews		Interviews with landlords and non-profits
	Space
Training

Basic Example of a Logic Model – Healthy people, strong communities
 Impact Area: Developing the capacity of people to care for themselves and their families and building inclusive communities

Outcome(s)	Inputs	Activities	Outputs	Indicators	Measurement Tools
People learn and develop positive living skills	Community Agency			Increased positive relationships
	Funders			Increased skills and knowledge to support healthy development
People have strong community connections	Volunteers			Increased sense of community
	Computers			Increased participation in community activities and groups
	Supplies
	Staff
	Space
	Training				