

WHAT A BETTER LIFE MEANS FOR ME...

“My granddaughter, Jenna, and I can feel like a normal family at the grandparents raising grandchildren social events. It’s been rough raising a child with Fetal Alcohol Syndrome, but I’d do it all over again for Jenna.”

Ruth, grandmother and guardian to 7-year-old Jenna

“I’m alive! I have a new career and a job. I can pay the bills. The free counselling I received when I was bankrupt and suicidal saved my life, literally.”

Trish, now a Social Worker

“I feel so much better about myself, more confident. And it feels good to come back and help all the new guys. I lost my family to alcohol and drugs, and now I’ve gained a new family at the recovery house.”

Jarod, proud to be clean and sober
